Maintenance Organization Capabilities

ACC COLUMBIA Jet Service is a leading aircraft maintenance and repair organization based in Germany. With major maintenance facilities at Hanover and Cologne Bonn Airports, we provide 24/7 support for small, midsize, and large cabin private aviation as well as transport category aircraft. Additionally, we operate a satellite line maintenance station in Paphos, Cyprus, along with specialized sheet metal work facilities in Wegberg and Mitterskirchen.

Whether your aircraft requires routine inspections, unscheduled or heavy maintenance, overhauls, structural repairs, interior refurbishments, avionic upgrades, or spare parts support, our expert team is at your service. We ensure your aircraft is returned to you in prime condition, fully compliant with all safety regulations.

For any inquiries, our dedicated sales team is ready to assist you.
